I understand with this application that I will be a guest in the places where I visit. I agree to listen to and respect the team leaders. I understand I must pay my TRANSFORM costs on time and realise that I am responsible for my own passport, travel to and from Sydney airport, my immunisation and other necessary medication, including Malaria protection. I have sufficient funds available to pay for my trip and believe I am healthy and unaware of any condition which may hinder my travel to an overseas country.
